ACKNOWLEDGMENT

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

First of all gratitude is due to ALLAH who guides me and gives me strength to execute the first steps on path of improving my knowledge through this humble effort.

My deepest thanks to Prof. Dr. Sayed Mohamed El Shazly, Vice Dean of the science faculty in Qena for post graduate and research and Professor of atmospheric Physics for suggesting the point of study, supervision, continues discussion, fruitful advance throughout the progress of the work, and preparing this thesis in the final form.

I have great pleasure in expressing my deepest appreciation to Prof. Dr. Mohamed Magdy Abdel Wahab. Manager of environmental researches center and Professor of Meteorology, faculty of science, Cairo university for his true efforts in supplying me with the used data, fruitful advance throughout the progress of the work.

Also I have the pleasure to thank Prof. Dr. Abdel Azeem M. Abdel Megeed, professor of atmospheric physics, for his continuous encouragement, especially in the start of this work.

Finally, I'm grateful to every body who gives me hand during this study.

Afaf Gaballah Shazly
