Tell me and I forget,

Teach me and I learn,

Involve me and I remember

"Benjamin Franklin"

I dedicate this work

*To my beloved caring parents, brother and Grandma;
Hoda, Khalil, Karim and Naïma
For the beginning;*

*Yet be most proud of that which I compile
Whose influence is thine and born of thee
(William Shakespeare, Sonnet 78)*

*To Gamal Wafa for his skill, mentorship and friendship
And
To my Hermine
For the present and the promise of the future.*

God bless you all.
