*To my great beloved wife;
to whom I owe all my success.*

Thank you for everything.

Acknowledgement

Words cannot express how deep I am grateful to Professor Dr. Zeinab Beshry , Professor of Psychiatry , Faculty of Medicine , Ain Shams University , for her generous supervision , indispenible guidance, helpful advice and great patience , which made me accomplish this work in its present form . Working under her supervision has been a source of constant delight and indeed a great privelege.

I wish also to express my sincere gratitude to Professor Dr. Mohamed El Giundi , Assisstant Professor of Pediatrics , National Research Center , for his honest supervision , kind assistance and the great effort he did to help me throughout my study.

I feel deeply thankful to Professor Dr. Hala El Ashry , Assisstant Professor of Pediatrics , National Research Center , for her great help and guidance , as she was keen to offer advice and help that were of great importance to me.

I feel deeply thankful to Professor Dr. Azza Gabr , Assisstant Professor of Pediatrics , National Research Center , for her valuable co-operation .

My special thanks go to Prof. Dr. Inas El Attar , Professor of Medical Statistics , Cancer Institute , Cairo University , for her expert consultation in the field of statistics which gave the study its scientific value .

I wish also to express my feelings of immense gratitude to Professor Dr. Ramzy El Baroudy, Professor of Pediatrics , Faculty of Medicine , Cairo University , who taught me how to be a pediatrician.

Last but not least, my special thanks goes to my dear friend Dr. Adel Nagiub , lecturer of pediatrics , National Research Center , for his great help and gracious assistance that he offered during the work in this thesis .
