ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to Prof. Dr. Z.H. Kheiralla, Assistant Professor of Botany, Faculty of Girls for Arts, Science and Education, Ain Shams University, for her kind help and constructive criticism.

I am also indebted to Prof. Dr. L.A. Sallam, and Prof. Dr. A.H. El-Refaii, Professors of Natural and Microbial Products Chemistry, National Research Center, Dokki, Cairo, for suggesting the topic of this work, continuous encouragement, valuable guidance as well as reviewing this work.

My deep thanks and appreciation are also extended to Dr. A.A. Hamdi and Dr. H.A. El-Minofy, Assistant Professors of Natural and Microbial Products Chemistry, National Research Center, for their valuable instructions, personal supervision during the work and sincere help in preparing the manuscript. My sincere gratitude is greatly expressed to them.

Grateful thanks are also extended to Dr. M. Yassein, Egyptian Sugar & Complementary Industries Company, Organic Chemical Factories, El-Hawamdia, Giza, for his sincere help in the experimental work.

Moreover, the author would like to acknowledge gratefully all the members of the Department of Chemistry of Microbial and Natural Products for their cooperation and help which enable this work to be accomplished.

This thesis has not been submitted for any degree at this or any other university
