Acknowledgements

I am deeply thanking God for providing me the power and the ability to complete this project after four years of study and research.

During the preparation of this thesis, I have received the constant assistance and encouragement of many people. In particular, I am indebted to Dr. Medhat Dorra for his enthusiastic support to my ideas. A peculiar acknowledgement for his extraordinary helps, cooperation, motivation, encouragement and understanding that have facilitated the thesis' completion.

Special thanks to Dr. Mootaz Farid, who helped me in countless ways, remained sympathetic to the subject, demonstrated patience, and especially for his respective and remarkable role in the editorial preparation, as he critically went through my earlier drafts. To him, I am grateful for every useful and detailed comment.

I want to express my appreciation and thanks to Dr. Ali Elsawi, who showed a personal interest in the subject from the beginning, made me questioned my ideas, proposals, and methodology that allowed me to re-evaluate my views. Also, thanks to him for his constant assistant and respective advice, without which, this project would not have been possible.

I am grateful also to many staff-members at Cairo University for their comments and advice given during the process of compiling for material.

Thanks to all my friends who encouraged my interest, provided supportive milieu, made me think aloud and share my ideas.

My sincere thanks and appreciation to my family members to whom I am grateful for being very understanding, tolerant and flexible. As always, they were a constant source of encouragement and support.
