First and the most I would like to thank Allah, whom without thee this work would not have been done.

The author wishes to thank Prof. Dr. Salah A. El-Enein Professor of Physical Chemistry, Faculty of Science, Ain Shams University, for valuable guiding, encouragement and kind acceptance to sponsor this work at the University.

The author wishes to express his sincere appreciation and gratitude to Prof. Dr. Hisham F. Aly, Professor of Nuclear Chemistry, Hot Lab., Center and Ex-Chairman of Atomic Energy Authority, for suggestion and supervising this work and for his useful discussion and significant encouragement.

The author is deeply indebted to Prof. Dr. Sohair A. El-Reefy, Professor of Radiochemistry, Hot Labs. Center, Atomic Energy Authority, for unlimited help, close supervision, valuable guidance and encouragement.

Thanks for all members of the Analytical Chemistry Department, for their cooperation and useful help.
