Acknowledgement

First of all, I thank Allah to whom I relate any success in achieving any work in my life.

I find no words by which I can express my sincere thanks, supreme gratitude to Prof. Dr. Ahmed Shawky Al-Fawaby, Professor of Internal Medicine, Faculty of Medicine, Ain Shams University, who kindly offered me the generous encouragement, supervision, guidance and continuous support.

I would also to express my great thanks to Prof. Dr. Nohad Amer, Professor of Internal Medicine, Faculty of Medicine, Ain Shams University, for her assistance, help and advice.

I am deeply grateful to Dr. Mohamed Abdel Maaboud, Lectures of Internal Medicine, Faculty of Medicine, Ain Shams University, for his kind patience, sincere advice and for his close supervision, cooperation and tremendous effort all through this study. Any attempt to express my indebtedness to him will be far from being complete.

Also, I am greatly honoured to express my deepest gratitude to my mother, father and my sister, for their love, care and everlasting support through the whole work.
