ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

A special acknowledgement with my whole-hearted thanks, and deepest gratitude to Dr. yousr Abd Alsalam Gaafar Assistant Professor of Pediatric Nursing; Faculty of Nursing, Alexandria University for her unlimited help, alert and ready guidance, and valuable and stimulating advice throughout my work.

My sincere regard, appreciation, and gratitude to Dr. Wafaa Mahmoud Abd Elkader Lecturer of Pediatric Nursing; Faculty of Nursing, Alexandria University; for her valuable instructions, prompt help, and the great time and effort she has devoted for the supervision of this thesis.

My thanks go to Prof. Dr. Mohamed Hussein, Professor of biostatistics, in the High Institute of Public Health, for his valuable efforts and guidance regarding the statistical analysis of this work.

In addition, my thanks go to all the staff in the faculty of nursing particularly of Pediatric Nursing for their help, and staff of Children's University Hospital for facilitating the study. My sincere regard to all nurses who shared in the study, and were so kindly cooperated while carrying out this study.

My deepest gratitude is to my parents, for their loving care and support. My heartfelt thanks go to my brothers and my sisters for their friendship and empathy.

Last, but not least, I wish to offer my special appreciation to my friends for their endless spiritual help and support.
