1. The first of these is the fact that the majority of the population of the United States is now living in urban areas. This is a result of the process of urbanization, which has been going on since the beginning of the 20th century. The process of urbanization is the movement of people from rural areas to urban areas. This movement is caused by a number of factors, including the search for better living conditions, the desire for education, and the need for employment. The process of urbanization has led to the growth of large cities and the decline of small towns. This has had a number of effects on the United States, including the concentration of population in a few areas, the loss of rural life, and the development of a new urban culture.

I'm greatly indebted to my professor Dr. Omar El-Khashab, Prof. of Int. Med. Cairo University. His unlimited help was behind all steps. I was much impressed by his sincere guidance, strenuous efforts and continuous encouragement. Without his help, this work would have never been accomplished.

I wish to express my deep gratitude and respect, to professor Dr. M. Hani Hafiz, Prof. of Int. Med. Cairo University. His helpful criticisms and suggestions, have helped greatly in accomplishing this work.

I fell much honored to express my indebtedness to professor Dr. Mervat El-Ansary, Prof. of Clinical Pathology, Cairo University. Her incessant valuable instructions and the help she gave in a most generous way.

I'm greatly indebted to professor Dr. Nadida Gohar, Prof. of Chemical Pathology, Cairo University. She was behind facilitation of much of the complicated practical work.

I'm, also quite grateful to Dr. Ashraf A. Donia Consultant Nephrology, National Institute of Nephrology, for his guidance and statistical advises.
