good health and more progress.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, praise and thanks to the beneficial and merciful ALLAH who guided the author and gave him strength and patience to carry - over the heavy duties imposed on him.

The author is grateful to; the Dean of the Faculty of Science (Qena) South Valley University for making facilities required available and, to the Chairman of the Department of Zoology of the same Faculty for his enthusiasm and encouragement.

The author is truly incapable of expressing her sincere gratitude to Prof. I.S. Kawashti; Professor of Experimental Zoology, Department of Zoology, Faculty of Science, Al-Azhar University for suggesting the point and supervising the work.

The author is much indebted Dr. Ahmed Essa Yaseen, Associate Professor of Cytogenic, Department of Zoology, Faculty of Science, Qena, South Valley University, for his ever-ready help and guidance throughout the entire breath-breaking stages of the work.

Finally, the author would like to express her heartily deepest feeling towards staff members colleagues and, technicians of the same department my Allah bless them all.
