For my people standing staring trying to fashion a better way from confusion ... trying to fashion a world that will hold all the people all the adams and the eves and their countless generations:

Let a new earth rise. Let another world be born. Let a bloody peace be written in the sky ... let a loving freedom come to growth, let a beauty full of healing and a strength of final cleansing be the pulsing in our spirits and our blood.

For My People

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am sincerely indebted to Prof. Dr. Mohamed Enani for his professional and academic guidance. Had it not been for his constant encouragement and moral support, this thesis would not have seen the light. Thank you for believing in me when I lose faith in myself.

Deepest of gratitude is also due to Prof. Dr. Mohamed Shebl El – Komy, Dean of the Faculty of Languages, Ain Shams University for his professional guidance all through my masters and undergraduate years. Thank you for all that you helped me achieve.

I would like to sincerely thank Dr. Amal El-Hadary who ten years ago taught me my first poetry class which made all the difference. It, actually, determined which road to take and still helps determine the choices further down the road.

Thank you for all those who directly or indirectly offered a hand of support when I most needed help. To all of you, I say thank you.
