Acknowledgement

Sincere appreciation to Prof. Dr. Mofida Mahmoud Kamal, Professor and Head of Health Education and Behavioral Sciences Department, HIPH, for her review of the manuscript and for the sincere effort she made in guiding me towards the successful completion of these work.

Appreciation is also expressed to Prof. Dr. Mohamed Darwish El-Bourgy, Professor of Health Education and behavioral Sciences, HIPH, for his valuable guidance, constructive criticism and continued support throughout this graduate program.

Furthermore, my sincere gratitude to Dr. Ibtissam Mohamed Fetohy, Assistant Professor of Health Education and Behavioral Sciences, HIPH, who offered valuable suggestions, support and encouragement throughout the different phases of this thesis and during writing of its narrative, without which it would not have been possible to fulfill this study.

And my sincere gratitude to the students who welcomed to fill the questionnaire and for their teachers.

Finally and most important of all, praise be to God, the worthy of all thanks, the all-Knowing, who taught by the pen, taught that which they knew unto men.

I dedicate this entire work to

My Wonderful Father, Mother,

My Inspiring Husband and My Children

for their support, encouragement and unbroken prayers & unyielding faith in God.
