Acknowledgements

It was a remarkably good luck that I had the honour to be one of the very long queue of students of the great linguist, Dr. Ali Ezzat, Professor of Linguistics at Ain-Shams University. Both in the undergraduate and post-graduate period, Professor Ezzat practically taught us how a person should be perfect both on the moral and academic levels. I am deeply indebted to him, for without his sincere and great help this work would never have existed.

I am also greatly indebted to Dr. Mona Abousenna, Professor of English Literature at Ain-Shams University, who helped me overcome several problems and was more of a mother and professor than just a formal supervisor. To her I owe drawing my attention to the domain of the study of the thesis. However, any inconvenience remains the sole responsibility of the researcher.

The entire lexicon falls short of expressing my gratitude to my dear husband Dr. Montasser El-Shourbagy who gently tolerated my ups and downs
