Acknowledgement

Many people have assisted me in the completion of this thesis. My first and greatest debt is to my supervisors, Prof. Jeanette W.S. Atiyya and Prof. William Grabe, for guiding me through the different stages of the study, for reading many drafts thereof, for spending hours and hours discussing these drafts with me, for being patient with all this, they have gone far beyond the call of duty. Perhaps more important they always allowed me to express myself freely, without being lenient with my academic whims.

I also thank Prof. Amal Kari and Dr. Shaker Rizk for honoring me and being on my thesis defense committee.

I owe great deal of moral support to Prof. Fawzia Gadallah, Chairman of the English Department, Faculty of Arts, Sohag University.

Love and thanks to my parents, my husband and my kids for their patience, love, and support.

My thanks to my colleagues in the English department, Sohag, South Valley University.

None of the people sincerely acknowledged above is to be held responsible for any shortcomings in the thesis. These are entirely mine.
