ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and for most, thanks to Allah, the most beneficent and merciful.

I would like to express my deepest gratitude to Prof. Dr. Soliman H. El-Kammash, Professor of Surgery, and Dean of Faculty of Medicine, Suez Canal University, for his continuous guidance and encouragement throughout this work. It was an honor to work under his supervision.

I am deeply indebted to Prof. Taha Ali Moati, Professor of Surgery, Suez Canal University, for his constant support and guidance during preparation of this thesis. Without his kind support, this work would not have come to light.

I wish to express my thanks and sincere gratitude to Dr. Ehab Mohamed El-Hossiny, Lecturer of Surgery, Suez Canal University, for his cardinal help and guidance that enabled me to finish this work.

FINALLY, I WOULD LIKE TO THANK ALL MY PROFESSORS & COLLEAGUES IN THE SURGICAL DEPARTMENT AND CLINICAL PATHOLOGY, SUEZ CANAL UNIVERSITY, FOR THEIR CONTINUOUS ENCOURAGEMENT AND HELP.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for transparency and accountability, particularly in financial matters. The text outlines various methods for organizing and storing data, including digital databases and physical filing systems. It also mentions the need for regular audits and reviews to ensure the integrity of the information.

2. The second part of the document focuses on the role of communication in achieving organizational goals. It highlights the importance of clear and concise communication, both internally and externally. The text provides guidelines for effective communication, such as using appropriate language, listening actively, and providing feedback. It also discusses the benefits of open communication and how it can foster a collaborative and innovative work environment.

3. The third part of the document addresses the challenges of managing resources and personnel. It discusses the importance of efficient resource allocation and the need for effective personnel management. The text provides strategies for identifying and addressing resource gaps, as well as for recruiting, training, and motivating staff. It also mentions the importance of maintaining a positive organizational culture and the role of leadership in this process.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the importance of continuous improvement and innovation. It emphasizes that organizations must constantly seek ways to improve their processes and products to remain competitive in a rapidly changing market. The text outlines various methods for identifying areas for improvement, such as conducting regular reviews and soliciting feedback from customers and employees. It also discusses the importance of fostering a culture of innovation and encouraging employees to think creatively and propose new ideas.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of risk management and compliance. It emphasizes that organizations must identify and assess potential risks and implement measures to mitigate them. The text provides guidelines for developing a risk management framework and for ensuring compliance with relevant laws and regulations. It also mentions the importance of maintaining accurate records of all risk management activities and the need for regular updates and reviews.
