ACKNOWLEDGMENT

In all gratitude I would like to express my most sincere thanks to Prof. Dr. Mohsen A. Gadallah, Professor of Community, Environmental and Occupational Medicine, Ain Shams University for honoring me with the supervision of this work, which was of great help.

I'm deeply indebted to Prof. Dr. Tahani H. Michael, Professor of Medical physiology, National Research Center for her continuous encouragement, support and generous cooperation with me.

Special thanks to Prof. Dr. Ahmed H. Abdel-Karim, Professor of Occupational and Environmental Health, National Research Center. I feel deeply thankful to him for generous cooperation and continuous guidance. His help and advice were a great support throughout this work.

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to Prof. Dr. Mervat H. Abdel-Aziz, Assistant Professor of Community, Environmental and Occupational Medicine, Ain Shams University for her kind, close and meticulous supervision and for her valuable comments and advises throughout this work.

My deepest appreciation and profound gratitude to Dr. Susan S. Abdel-Wahab, Fellow Doctor of Clinical Pathology, Ain Shams University for her great help in supervising the practical part of this work.

My great thanks to Dr. Karima Abass, Assistant Professor of Medical Physiology, National Research Center for her great help and support.
