Acknowledgment

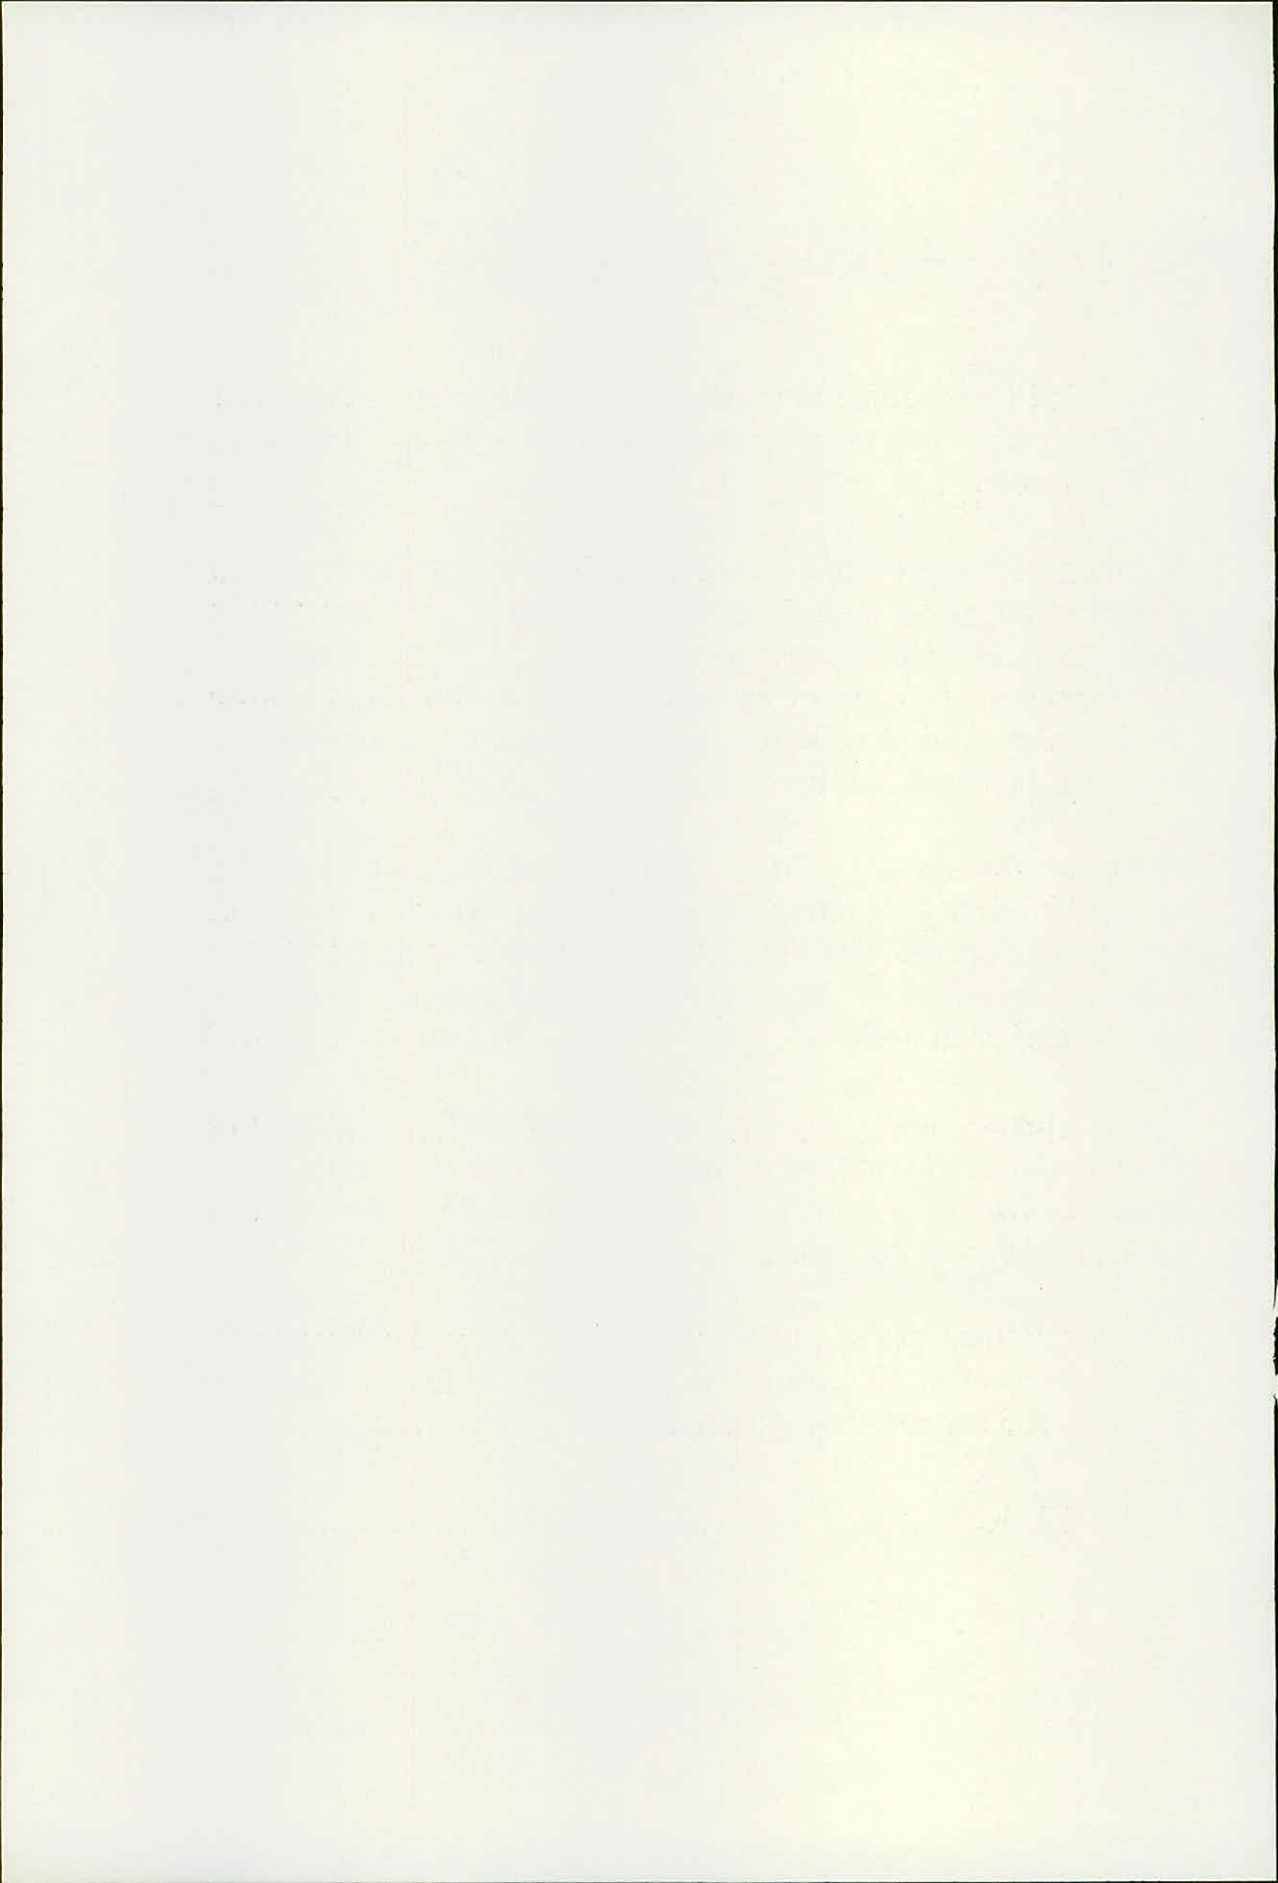

First of all I would like to thank GOD, for completing this work, for the chance I had to go through this work with the supervision of my Professors.

My deepest gratitude and thanks are to be presented to Professor Doctor Alaa Abdel Hay, Professor of Neurosurgery, Ain Shams University, who is the father of the idea of the work, he gave me the courage and power to go through, and continuously pushed me to finish in the best shape, words will not be enough to give him what I feel towards him.

Professor Doctor Alaa Fakhr, Professor of Neurosurgery, Ain Shams University was my wise mind during the whole work, he never stopped guiding me throughout the work with his constructive criticism and appraisal, his advises were invaluable and were of great help.

Special thanks and deep appreciation to Assistant Professor Doctor Ahmad Hamad, Assistant Professor of Neurosurgery, Ain Shams University, for his patience and for the time and effort he gave to me during that work.

My special thanks to all professors, senior staff, and colleagues in the department of Neurosurgery, Ain Shams University, for the facilities and support they gave to me.
