النساء - آية : ١١٣

A decorative border of stylized flowers and vines surrounds the text. The border features several large, dark, bell-shaped flowers on the left and right sides, with smaller buds and leaves interspersed. The vines are thin and elegant, with small loops and curls. At the bottom, a wide, flowing ribbon-like element spans across the width of the page.

Acknowledgement

First of all, thanks for Allah to whom I relate any success in my life.

It goes without saying that whatever the amounts of thanks I express, it will be too little to pay back the great encouragement, wise advice, and scientific guidance to Prof. Dr. Mohammad Hamdy Ghazaly, Professor of Pediatrics, Faculty of Medicine, Assiut University.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Prof. Dr. Merrit Mohammad Darwish, Professor of Pediatric nursing, Faculty of Nursing, Cairo University, for her skillful help, sincere support, valuable efforts and fruitful suggestions.

My deep thanks and everlasting appreciation and gratitudes go to Dr. Awatef El-Sayed Ahmed, Lecturer of Pediatric Nursing, Faculty of Nursing, Assiut University, For her continuous assistance and guidance, valuable instructions and persistent support.
