Acknowledgments

ALLAH, the greatest creator and the most merciful sustainer, to be thanked for everything and for the strength he gave me to accomplish this work, to his might I should be most thankful.

I would like to express my profound gratitude and sincere appreciation to Prof. Dr. Samia Abdel kareem Aly, Professor of Clinical oncology, Assiut University, for her supervision, constructive guidance, critical comments, continuous help and great efforts throughout this work.

I wish to express my deep appreciation and gratitude to Prof. Dr. Samir Shehata Assistant Professor of Clinical Oncology, Assiut University, for being a continual source of support, his close supervision, numerous suggestions, fruitful discussions and kind encouragements. Without his meticulous help and advises, this work would not have been done

My thanks extend to all staff members and colleagues for their help and cooperation.

Mohammed medhat samir.
