Acknowledgement

First and for most, praises and thanks to Allah Almighty for blessing me with knowledge and patience, without his blessings this thesis wouldn't have come to the light.

I am deeply thankful and grateful to Professor Dr Noha Kabil, Head of Paediatric Dentistry Department at British University in Egypt for her continuous support and motivation throughout this research project. Her role was not limited to scientific and research supervision; her sincere care was the most encouraging to overcome the obstacles I faced during different stages, and pursue my work passionately. She is a real role model to follow and look up to

I owe a deep sense of gratitude to Dr Ola Abdelgeleel Lecturer at the Paediatric Dentistry Department Ain Shams University for her day-to-day instruction and support, and for her kind contribution towards reviewing my thesis and making this final outcome possible. Being generous to offer advice and time during every single step of thesis production is invaluable indeed.

I would like to thank Dr Maged Zohdy Assistant Professor at the Fixed Prosthodontics Department Ain Shams University . His prompt inspiration and intelligent suggestion guided me to the end of a beautiful road that made me stand here today.

I must express my profound gratitude to Professor Nadia Metwalli for providing me with endless support throughout my journey. I could not have accomplished my research without her guidance.

Thank you to my dear friends and colleagues, especially: Dr.Omar El Sergany, Dr.Farid Emad, Dr. Sara Adel, Dr. Basma Gamal, Dr. Salma Mortagy, Dr. Yasmine Ashraf, Dr. Ahmed Hisham, Dr. Islam Yehia, Dr. Mohamed Saad, Dr Karim Ayman, Dr Abdel Rahman Shawky and Dr.Medhat Ahmad

Dedicated to

My Father

My role model and my mentor.

My Mother

My forever supporter who always pushes me to work harder and harder.

My Sister

For standing by my side throughout this journey.

My Brother

Who manages to draw a smile on my face whenever things get tough.
