Acknowledgement

I am deeply thankful to Allah who gives me the clear sight, helps and supports me in all my steps and granted me the patience and strength to achieve this work.

Deep gratitude to Prof. Dr. Emtithal Ahmed Bahaa El-Din El-Sawi, may God have mercy on her, Prof of organic chemistry, Faculty of women for Arts, Science and Education, Ain Shams University for her kind help, encouragement and scientific supervision.

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to Prof. Dr. Tahia Bayomi Mostafa, Prof. of organic chemistry, Faculty of women for Arts, Science and Education, Ain Shams University for her continuous support and valuable guidance.

My great thanks and gratitude to Prof. Dr. Reda F. M. El-Shaarawy, Prof. of organic chemistry, Faculty of Science, Suez University who suggested the point and revised the thesis. I am thankful for his useful discussion, interpretation of the data and personal help in the accomplishment of the present study.

This thesis would not have been possible without the help of my co-author Dr. Mehrez El-Naggar, Ass. Prof. of Pre-Treatment and Finishing of cellulosic Fabric, Textile Research Division, National Research Center who supports me with his academic acknowledge and valuable feedback in the textile applications.

The author wishes to express her thanks to Prof. Dr. Omayma Mostafa, Head of Chemistry Department, Faculty of women for Arts, Science and Education, Ain Shams University for providing and the facilities.

Deep thanks to all my colleagues, especially Ayaat Abdel Azeim, Ass. Teacher in Chemistry Department, Faculty of women for Arts, Science and Education, Ain Shams University for encouraging and helping me to complete my thesis.
